DEDICATION.

TO the CITIZENS of YORK.
GENTLEMEN,

 THE Design of this Dedication, is to express my Gratitude as a Citizen, to some of Mr. Lane's principal Friends, (the Lord Mayor, and the Gentlemen who sign'd one of the following Papers) whose Conduct on this Occasion, has demonstrated, that no Party Influence could restrain them from being Friends to Truth, to Justice, and to Honour.

The Papers here collected, contain a full and clear Narrative of the whole Transaction, relating to the Agreement made, by Mr. Lane's Authority, with Mr. Thornton: They require neither Addition to, nor Observation upon them; and are published to vindicate the Characters of such as have been unjustly aspers'd, and to throw the Odium upon those who most justly deserve it: In this Light they are submitted to every unprejudic'd Reader.

• I do not intend, and I hope shall not be understood, to impute any intentional Wrong to your late young unsuccessful Candidate; but look upon every Thing respecting him, as the Effects of inexperience'd Youth, warm'd with a little too much Ambition; flatter'd and impos'd upon by selfish ill-designing Men: In short,—rather as an Instrument, than an Actor in the Matter. Nay! there is reason to believe, after his Arrival in this City to dine with Sheriff Wallis, he was neither suffer'd coolly to reflect on his own Situation, nor permitted to have those Friends about him, who would have put him upon such cool Reflection.

With you who are Mr. Thornton's Friends, I most sincerely congratulate, the Zeal and Activity you have shewn in Defence of your King and Country, does you much Honour; a Majority of Two Hundred and Forty-five, is, at any Time, considerable; but attack'd as you were, by

DEDICATION.

Treachery and Surprise, 'tis great. Your Adversaries cannot now, as formerly upon their Defeat, boast of their Superiority of the resident and substantial Citizens; the Majority of the former, appears too glaringly to be deny'd; the latter, to every one acquainted with this City, bears not the least Comparison: A careful Perusal of the following Sheets will shew it, and demonstrate, That the young Candidate's pleasing Hopes of Success upon a future Trial, are vain indeed; for the generous Contempt of Money, shewn by some of you in rejecting it; by others, in throwing large Sums upon the Table at the Poll, and voting for Mr. Thornton, are manifest Proofs ye are not to be bought, or influenced against your Duty or Principles: Let those be handed down to your Posterity; and may your Sons remain of the same Principles with their Fathers.

MR. Thornton having received a Message from Mr. Robert Lane, by Mr. Sheriff Wallis, desiring a Conference in order for fixing the Day for the Commencement of the Election; return'd the following Answer in Writing, which was deliver'd to, and read by Mr. Lane:

Mr. Thornton has received Mr. Lane's Message by Mr. Sheriff Wallis; but as he thinks himself ill-used by meeting with an Opposition, after the most solemn and public Agreement entered into, that there should be none, ratify'd by the most sacred Promises; and as Mr. Alderman Farrer declared he had Mr. Lane's Authority to acquiesce to that Agreement, he cannot with Honour think of a Conference with Mr. Lane.

To the Worthy Citizens of Y O R K.

GENTLEMEN,

THere having been a great Number of Papers, and Advertisements, lately dispers'd about, highly reflecting upon the Characters of my Lord Mayor, several of the Aldermen, and other principal Citizens, relating to the Nomination of Mr. Thornton, to succeed the late gallant Sir John Armytage as your Representative in Parliament: A true State of their Conduct, on that Occasion, cannot be improperly offer'd to the Publick.

On Thursday Evening the 21st of September last, arrived the melancholy News of the Death of Sir John Armytage.

mytage. Soon after, it was confidently reported, that Mr. Thornton had been invited by a considerable Number of Citizens, to offer himself a Candidate. The next Morning Mr. Robert Lane came over for the same Purpose. The anonymous Author of a late scandalous Advertisement, having therein prostituted the respectable Names of Alderman Lane, and his Son, to the Purposes of Faction and Falshood; the Writer of this Paper, hopes he will be excused in taking the Liberty to mention those Gentlemen's Names in Behalf of Truth and injured Characters.—Soon after Mr. Robert Lane's Arrival, a Meeting was held at the Mansion-House, where were present the Lord Mayor, several Aldermen and principle Citizens, consisting of such only as had, upon all Occasions, distinguished themselves as his Father's most steady Friends. The Company being met, they were told by a worthy Alderman (whose Veracity, Malice itself could never call in Question) that he was desired by Alderman Lane, to ask their Opinion, Whether it was adviseable for his Son to offer himself a Candidate? adding, That he would be therein guided by the Opinion of his Friends. The Result of this Meeting was, that for many Reasons then and there alledg'd, they thought it best to give no Opposition to Mr. Thornton, provided that Gentleman, and his Friends would engage not to oppose Alderman Lane at the next general Election, or Mr. Robert Lane, if the former should chuse to decline in Favour of his Son. Two of the Company then present, having been desired to enquire Mr. Thornton's Sentiments on that Subject; he sent for Answer, 'He would as soon chuse to serve in Parliament with Mr. Lane, or his Son, as with any Gentleman in the County.—On the Sunday Evening following, the Lord Mayor called a Second, and more numerous Meeting of Mr. Lane's Friends; when it being resolved to abide by the former Proposal: Mr. Thornton was sent for to the Mansion-House: He came there accordingly, attended by many of the principal Citizens, who all declared and promis'd for themselves, that they would concur in chusing Alderman Lane, or his Son, at the next general Election, provided the Lord Mayor, and his Company, would not oppose Mr. Thornton's Election to supply the present Vacancy. In Consequence of this unanimous Agreement on both Sides, Notice was given, by printed Bills dispersed throughout the whole City the next Morning, for the Freemen to meet in the Afternoon at the Guildhall, to consider of a proper Person to represent the City in Parliament, in the room of the late Sir John Armytage, who gallantly fell in the Cause of his Country. Many Hundreds appear'd there accordingly; when the above-mentioned Proposal was agreed to, without the least Opposition. So far every Thing seem'd to promise Peace and good Neighbourhood. But a certain Physician (who remarkably distinguish'd himself for his Loyalty and Zeal in Behalf of his Majesty King GEORGE, and the Protestant Establishment, during the last Rebellion), attended by a learned Apothecary (who some Years since undertook to prove, by Algebraical Calculations, that it was impossible for a Smugler to be guilty of a Robbery on the Highway, though he had been most fairly and fully convicted thereof) fearing a Compromise would deprive them of the Advantage of Sporting with other People's Money, determin'd to set all aside. To this End they apply'd to three different Gentlemen, desiring them to become Candidates against Mr. Thornton; all of whom rejected their Offer with the deserved Contempt. What has happen'd since every Body knows.—Much more might be added: But this will be sufficient to convince every unprejudic'd Man, how little Occasion there is to throw the whole Town into the Confusion always attending a contested Election, merely to gratify the sordid Views of a Brewer, a Wine-merchant, and a Grocer; the Vanity of an Apothecary, or the Self-Importance of a Physician.

YORK, Nov. 27, 1758.

AN Advertisement having been dispersed on Saturday last, wherein I am call'd upon to declare, Whether I had any Authority from Mr. Lane, or his Son, or their Agents, to call a Meeting on Friday the 22d, and on Sunday the 24th of September last, at the Mansion-House, and also by what Authority I summon'd the Citizens together on Monday the 25th of that Month: And Mr. Robert Lane having also publickly declared, in Print, That the Meeting held at the Mansion-House, on Sunday the 24th of September last, was call'd without any Authority thority from his Father or himself, I think it a Duty owing to Truth, to Justice, and to my own Character, to declare the sincere Matter of Fact, to the best of my Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief.

On Friday the 22d of Sept. a Meeting of many principal Citizens was held at the Mansion-House, by the Desire of Alderman Farrer, who invited thither such Persons as he thought most proper. The Company being assembled, he told them, That, at the Request of Alderman Lane and his Son, they were desired to give their Sentiments, whether it would be proper for Mr. Robert Lane to offer himself a Candidate to represent this City in Parliament, on the unhappy Occasion of Sir John Armitage's Death: Adding, That Mr. Lane, and his Son, would be therein guided by the Advice of their Friends. The unanimous Opinion was, That Mr. Lane should drop his Pretensions at this Time, on Condition Mr. Thornton would not oppose the Choice of Mr. Lane, or his Son, at the next general Election. By the Desire of the Company I sent for Mr. Robert Lane, who seem'd, in my Opinion, to be well pleased with the Proposal; adding, That he would go back to Bramham-Park to acquaint his Father with what had pass'd, and be with me at the Mansion-House the next Morning by eight o'Clock: But, instead of coming there according to his Promise, he sent Dr. Burton to Mr. Ward's Printing-Office, with an Advertisement in the Hand-writing of Mr. Sheriff Wallis, and sign'd by himself, declaring himself a Candidate. Being astonished at his taking this Step, without communicating the Reasons for this Alteration of his Sentiments to his Friends, whom he had met the Day before, I sent to the Printing-Office to desire to see the Advertisement, which being sent to me, I thought it necessary to stop the printing of it. And hearing that Mr. Thornton was about publishing an Advertisement of his Intentions, I sent and stopp'd that also, apprehending it to be my Duty to preserve, as far as in me lay, the Peace of the City: And accordingly I call'd a second Meeting of Mr. Lane's Friends, with the Concurrence and Approbation of Alderman Farrer. Now, as that Gentleman had produced Alderman Lane's Letter, authorizing the first Meeting, how was it possible for me to suppose that the second was without his Authority; since Mr. Farrer appeared, to the Company, to be as much Mr. Lane's Agent at the second Meeting as at the first, and declared that the Resolution of the said second Meeting was to be Final; and that that Mr. Lane and Son, would abide by the Determination: The Consequence was, that the Resolution of Friday was confirmed; Mr. Thornton was sent for, and came attended by several of his Friends, who agreeing to accept, and abide by, the Terms proposed, I call'd a general Meeting of the Citizens at the Guildhall the next Day, where Mr. Thornton was declared the Candidate by the common Voice; and no Opposition appeared thereto from Mr. Lane, till last Week.

It is necessary to observe farther, That on Thursday Morning last, when there was a Report that Mr. Robert Lane intended to offer himself a Candidate, some of his Friends, in order to dissuade him therefrom, urged, as one Reason, that the Gentlemen present at the two first Meetings could not, without Breach of all Faith and Honour, serve him; looking upon themselves obliged to give no Opposition to Mr. Thornton. Now, if Alderman Farrer acted without the Authority of Mr. Lane or his Son, Why did not Mr. Robert Lane then declare so, and thereby discharge his Friends from the Obligation they thought themselves bound in to Mr. Thornton? And if Mr. Robert Lane was determined to stand Candidate, at all Events, Why did he not, at the first Meeting, declare it, since such a Declaration would have prevented all the unhappy Differences that have since followed?

I am extremely concerned that I should be necessitated to appear in Print on this Occasion; but as, I thank God, I have hitherto maintained, and I hope ever shall, the Character of an Honest Man, I cannot suffer my Reputation to be sacrificed to the Purposes of Faction or Ambition.

JOHN ALLANSON, Mayor.

We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, having been present at most of the foregoing Transactions, and well knowing the Integrity of my Lord Mayor, do declare the above Narrative to be true, to the best of our Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief.

WHereas Mr. Thornton hath thought proper, in a printed Advertisement, dated the 25th Instant, to assert, That I declared I had Mr. Lane's Authority to acquiesce to an Agreement, that no Opposition should be given him. And in another printed Advertisement, dated the 27th Instant, sign'd by the Lord Mayor and others, it is asserted, That the Lord Mayor called the second Meeting of Mr. Lane's Friends, on Sunday the 24th of September, with my Concurrence and Approbation; and that I declared, that that second Meeting should be Final; and that Mr. Lane, and his Son, would abide by their Determination. I think it necessary to acquaint my Friends and Fellow Citizens, that I am much misrepresented in those Assertions; and I absolutely deny that such second Meeting was call'd with my Concurrence, or that I knew any Thing of such Meeting being call'd, till my Lord Mayor himself acquainted me with his having call'd it, and desired me to be present at it; but without acquainting me who were the Persons invited to be there. And I do affirm, that what I said, both at the first and second Meeting, was, That Mr. Lane would abide by the Determination of his Friends; but I did not say, That such second Meeting should be Final, to the best of my Knowledge, Remembrance, or Belief.

GENTLEMEN,

I Return my hearty Thanks to such of You as are my Friends, for Your great Zeal and Assiduity in my Interest at this Election; and, tho' partly from the unhappy Mistakes amongst some of my Friends before the Election, and partly from the unconstitutional Methods that have been used both before and since it begun, the Success has not answered the Expectations of the worthy Citizens who invited me to stand a Candidate; yet neither this, nor any other Disappointment, shall deter me from endeavouring at all Times to serve You to the utmost of my Power; and I doubt not a future Trial will be attended with better Success. The

The Triumph of the Cause I have supported, greatly adds to my Joy on this Occasion. May such unfair dishonourable Methods, as have been made use of against me, always meet with the like deserved Fate.

I hope, by my Conduct in Parliament, to shew that your Favour has not been thrown away on an unworthy Object; and that I shall remain

To the Worthy FREEMEN and CITIZENS of YORK.

WHereas a very extraordinary Advertisement has appeared in the publick Papers in Mr. Thornton's Name, in which it has been mentioned 'that Unfair and Dishonourable Methods were made use of at the late Election;' I find myself obliged (though unwilling to enter into a Paper Contest, and without the least Regard to Insinuations, for which there is no Foundation in Truth) to shew those who may not be well acquainted with the Proceedings on both Sides, that I endeavoured to maintain a Conduct strictly Honourable, and, I hope, entirely Blameless.

I declare I never was consulted in regard to any Meeting at the Mansion-House on Sunday the twenty-fourth of September, nor was I informed by Advertisement, or otherwise, of any subsequent Meeting at the Hall on the Monday following, which was appointed by the Lord Mayor (as I have since heard) for Mr. Thornton to declare himself a Candidate, and at which his Lordship was present; but without any one Alderman: And as a farther Proof that not any Kind of Agreement, at any Place, was entered into by me, that should prevent my offering myself in Opposition to Mr. Thornton, the Printer of the COURANT well knows I fully explained my Intention, in case of a Vacancy, by a Paper I sent to the Press; but which, without my recalling it, was never printed. So far in Justification of myself; and I must add, I have acted as I always shall be ready to do, according to the best of my Judgement; and, as I thought, to serve my Country.

January

January 3, 1759.

To the Worthy CITIZENS of YORK.

IN an Advertisement published Yesterday in the YORK COURANT, by Mr. Robert Lane, there is the following Paragraph:

“ I declare I never was consulted in regard to any Meeting at the Mansion-House on Sunday the twenty-fourth of September, nor was I informed by Advertisement, or otherwise, of any subsequent Meeting at the Hall on the Monday following, which was appointed by the Lord Mayor (as I have since heard) for Mr. Thornton to declare himself a Candidate, and at which his Lordship was present; but without any one Alderman: And as a farther Proof that not any Kind of Agreement, at any Place, was entered into by me, that should prevent my offering myself in Opposition to Mr. Thornton, the Printer of the Courant well knows I fully explained my Intention, in case of a Vacancy, by a Paper I sent to the Press; but which, without my recalling it, was never printed.”

In Answer to so extraordinary an Assertion, I shall first quote a Passage from the Lord Mayor's Narrative, of what pass'd on Friday the 22d and Saturday the 23d of September last, sign'd by his Lordship, and attested by Mr. Alderman Mayer, Mr. John Wakefield, Mr. William Yates, Mr. Cesar Ward, Mr. John Richardson, Mr. Thomas Varley, and Mr. Bernard Lentrecre, all of whom are well known to be Mr. Lane's particular Friends.

“ On Friday the 22d of Sept. last, a Meeting of several of the principal Citizens was held at the Mansion-House, by the Desire of Alder. Farrer, who invited there such Persons as he thought most proper. The Company being assembled, the Alderman told them, They were call'd together at the Request of Mr. Lane and his Son, who desired them to consider whether it would be proper for Mr. Robert Lane to offer himself a Candidate in the room of Sir John Armitage; adding, That they would be therein guided by the Advice of their Friends; and produced a Letter from Mr. Lane, as his Authority for that Purpose. The unanimous Opinion of the Company was, That Mr. Robert Lane should drop his Pretensions at that Time, provided Mr. Thornton would not oppose the Choice of him, or his Father, at the next general Election. Mr. Robert Lane being “ sent for to the Mansion-House, seemed, in his Lord-“ ship’s Opinion, to be well pleased with the Proposal; “ adding, That he would go back to Bramham-Park, to “ acquaint his Father with what had pass’d, and be with “ the Lord Mayor the next Morning by Eight o’Clock;

 “ but, instead of coming there according to his Promise,
 “ he sent Dr. Burton to Mr. Ward’s Printing-Office, with “ an Advertisement, in the Hand-writing of Mr. Sheriff “ Wallis, and signed by himself, declaring himself a Can“ didate. The Lord Mayor astonished at Mr. Robert “ Lane’s taking this Step without communicating the Rea“ son of this Alteration of his Sentiments to his Friends who “ had met the Day before, thought it necessary to stop the “ printing of the Advertisement, in order to preserve the “ Peace of the City; and, on Sunday, called another “ Meeting, at which the Resolution of Friday being con“ firmed, Mr. Thornton was sent for, and came attended
 “ by several of his Friends.”

Thus much from the Lord Mayor’s Narrative.——

As to what pass’d at, and after, my being at the Mansion-House, it will appear from the following Declaration :

WE, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, do declare,
 That on Sunday Evening the 24th of September last, we attended Mr. Thornton to the Mansion-House, where we found the Lord Mayor with many other of Mr. Lane’s Friends. Alderman Mayer ask’d Mr. Thornton, Whether he intended to represent the City himself, or design’d to resign to some other Person? He assured him and the Company, That he intended to represent the City himself for the remaining Part of this Parliament, and would not resign to any Person whomsoever. The Lord Mayor then ask’d him, In case Mr. Lane would engage to give him no Opposition at the then Vacancy, if he would promise not to join any Person to oppose Mr. Lane at the next general Election, or Mr. Robert Lane, if his Father shou’d decline in Favour of him? Mr. Thornton promised he would not. Mr. Richard Dawson, one of Mr. Thornton’s Friends, then desiring to know, Whether, as Mr. Thornton had agreed to this, they had Authority from Mr. Lane and his Son, to make this Agreement on their Parts? Mr.
 Alderman Farrer rose from his Chair, and going towards
 Mr. Thornton, declared, They had Authority from Mr.
Lanes, and that what was then agreed upon should be binding. Upon this the Agreement was concluded on both Sides;

Sides; both Parties express'd the highest Satisfaction in, and Approbation of it: The Lord Mayor and the rest of the Company drank Mr. Thornton's Health, and Peace and Unanimity to the City of York. It being then propos'd, That, to secure Mr. Thornton effectually from any Opposition, a publick Meeting of all the Citizens should be call'd at the Guildhall, and Mr. Thornton should be there propos'd as a Candidate; the Company in general said, It would be best to have that Meeting upon the next Day, (being Monday) for this Reason, That if he was there approv'd of, his Nomination might appear in the York Paper on the Tuesday following.

The Lord Mayor, by a Number of Hand Bills dispers'd about the City, call'd a general Meeting of the Citizens on Monday Afternoon at the Guildhall; where he and several hundred Citizens attended; Mr. Thornton was unanimously nominated; and as it then, and for near nine Weeks after, appear'd, to the Satisfaction of the whole City.

Mr. Alderman Lane pass'd by us, the Persons under named, as we, and many other Citizens, were going about Three o'Clock, to the Meeting at the Hall, on his Return to Bramham.

We do hereby attest the Truth of the Facts above-mentioned.

| J. SWANN.        | THO. SIDDAL. |               |

I do further declare, That Mr. Alderman Farrer, himself, propos'd the Meeting at the Guildhall should be on the Monday, because my Nomination might then appear in the York Paper the Tuesday following, if I was there approv'd of.

W. THORNTON.

From the foregoing Facts naturally arise the following Questions:

1. Whether Mr. Alderman Farrer's producing a Letter from Mr. Alderman Lane, at the first Meeting, and his Declarations upon that Occasion, were not sufficient Inducements, for every Man present, to look upon him as Mr. Lane's Plenipotentiary?

2. Whether Mr. Alderman Farrer's affirming, in an Advertisement published by himself, That what he said, both at the first and second Meetings, was, That Mr. Lane would abide by the Determination of his Friends, is not a further Proof of his acting by Mr. Lane's Authority? But, if this is not thought sufficient, certainly Mr. Robert Lane's Advertisement, dated November 26, under his own Hand, in which he says, He thinks it necessary to acquaint the worthy Citizens of York, that he admits Mr. Alderman Farrer did say, at the Meeting on Sunday the 24th of September, That Mr Lane would abide by the Determination of his Friends, which Mr. Alderman Farrer had Authority to say, leaves no Room to doubt of Mr. Farrer's having full Power from Mr. Lane for what he did.

3. Admitting even that Mr. Lane's Advertisement, sent to the Printing-Office on Saturday, was a Declaration of his not continuing in the same Mind he was of the Day before; yet, doubtless, Mr. Alderman Farrer's agreeing to every Thing done on the Sunday, was a Revocation of Mr. Robert Lane's Advertisement, wherein he declared himself a Candidate; which is further confirmed by his not shewing any Disgust at the Lord Mayor for stopping it at Mr. Ward's Printing-Office, and by his not repeating his Orders for having it printed, or getting it printed elsewhere; to which may be added his Acquiescence therein for near nine Weeks.

4. Whether Mr. Robert Lane had any Notice given him of the intended general Meeting of the Citizens at the Guildhall, on Monday the 25th of September, I know not! But his Father most certainly had (which is the same Thing); for he came to Town three Hours before that Meeting, and saw the Citizens going to it; and therefore had sufficient Time to declare his Dissatisfaction at Alderman Farrer's Behaviour, had he exceeded his Authority, or had it been disagreeable either to himself or his Son; but that it was not so, to either of them, is beyond a Possibility of Doubt, for Mr. Alderman Lane, some little Time after the Meeting at the Guildhall, actually wrote to me, expressing his Acquiescence in my Nomination.

When Mr. Robert Lane thinks proper to answer this, the impartial World will be able to determine, whether the Charge of Unfair and Dishonourable Methods, made use of at the late Election, had, or had not, any Foundation in Truth. I am

Your most obedient,

And most humble Servant,

W. THORNTON.
